Chief Adamson's Comments:

➤ Operations & Training: There were 42 instances of neighboring jurisdictions providing assistance or a law enforcement service in the City of Horicon this month. The majority of calls w/o reports included 299 business / residence security checks, 110 traffic stops, 32 follow-up investigations, 18 process / paper services, and 16 ambulance assists. The police department will begin placing "Security Check" notification cards randomly at businesses to let them know of the continued service provided them. Adopt-A-Ward program metrics this summer saw 101 contacts related to ordinance compliance (curb-appeal). There were 78 instances of creating an awareness, 14 written warnings, and 9 citations. The majority of the contacts related to tall grass / weeds, campers being stored on streets, junk vehicles, and garbage accumulation. This winter we will focus on; parking, ice mitigation, sidewalk snow removal, and hydrant access.

➤ Staffing & Overtime: There were 284 hours paid-not-worked; 144.75 hours were not filled and 139.25 hours were filled (also known as Administrative OT). There were 27.5 hours of Operational OT. Overtime was down 12% from November 2012.
